

Linder Farm Network presents

Hosted by:

2012 AG Outlook Meetings

The Linder Farm Network will hold their tenth annual Agricultural Outlook Meetings across Minnesota this January. The meetings will focus on management and marketing strategies for the coming year, and will feature some of the top experts in the country.

Registration will be at 8:30 a.m. and the forums start at 9:00. The programs will run until 2:30 p.m. Cost is $30 per person, $50 per farm couple. Noon lunch is provided.

Date:	Location	City
1/30/2012 Monday	Broadway Ballroom 115 30th Ave. East	Alexandria, MN
1/31/2012 Tuesday	Holiday Inn Conference Center 2100 Hwy 12 East	Willmar, MN
2/1/2012 Wednesday	Ramada Marshall 1500 E. College Dr.	Marshall, MN
2/2/2012 Thursday	Best Western Hotel and Conf. Center 1111 Range Street	North Mankato, MN
2/3/2012 Friday	Holiday Inn Conference Center 2365 NW 43rd St.	Owatonna, MN

Agenda

Morning Sessions

9:00 AM Welcome:

Minnesota Soybean Growers Association

Equipment values, land sales, and other ag inputs. What is happening across the country? -
Greg Peterson www.machinerypete.com
Nationally recognized website owner
"Machinery Pete"

Outlook for U.S. Agriculture 2012 and how world events are shaping what we grow, how we grow and our bottom lines.
John Baize, International Ag Consultant

Land Values - Where Have We Come From, Where Are We headed
Darrell Huyen, Wingert Realty Mankato MN

Afternoon Sessions

11:45 AM Lunch

2012 Weather Outlook, World Weather Trends
Dr. Dennis Today, South Dakota State University, Climatologist and Professor of Meteorology

What's ahead for commodity prices, and how do farmers react to a changing market?
Mark Schultz, Northstar Commodity

The cost is $30. per person or $50 per couple, and includes coffee and noon lunch . For information contact the Linder Farm Network at 507-444-9224.

